CONTRACTS FOR FAIR ATTRACTIONS.

Secretary Hachmeister Preparing Free Shows-Chauffeur Fournier May Be Here.

Recretery John Hachmelster of the St. Louis Fair Association, closed a contract estarday with the Chicago representatives of attractions which will be seen at the St. Louis Fair this year. Probably the best known in this list is the Lockhart troupe of the Episoopalian Convention at San Franperforming elephants. They will go through their remarkable performance in the arems olisco as a representative of the English olurch, but not in an official capacity.

Bishop Jacobs is about 15 years old and a thorough Englishman. His friendship and admiration for America and Americans, however, were developed in a conversation with a Benublic reporter at the residence.

tle exhibit there might be some danger of the horses taking fright at the elephants, of Bis but he explained that arrangements were dready made to prevent anything of this kind. The elephants will give their regular daily performances at a time when horses will not be shown, and cattle are not afraid of the big brutes.

The Flying Banvards, the great aerial performers, are also engaged for Fair week, and will give exhibitions in the arena. Another high-class attraction will be the Aus-other high-class attraction will be trailed Family.

Efforts are being made, and with every indication of success, to induce Henri Four-nier, the famous French chauffeur, to come nier, the famous French chauffeur, to come to St. Louis and take part in the festivities at the Fair Grounds. Tod Sloan, the former premier jockey of America and England, is Fournier's running mata, and the prospects are that both will be here to add to the pleasure of the week. If Fournier comes he will try to break his own record on the horseless vehicle.

St. Louis men who are interested in the borseless carriage have obtained permission to use the mile track at the Fair Grounds for the purpose of getting themselves in shape for the races. The contests will some off in the arena, but the experts appear to have an idea that they will be in better trim if they learn the peculiarities of the

MAY BUILD NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Webster Groves Taxpayers and Patrons to Discuss Project.

Patrons to Discuss Project.

Taxpayers and patrons of the Webster Groves School District will meet in the Bristol building to morrow night to take action on the proposed building of a new high school in the pretty St. Louis suburb. An election for the purpose of raising a tax for the purpose is to be held October 1, and the object of the meeting is to arouse interest in the election.

Miss Milligan is principal of the Webster School. For some time she has been compelled to do the work of twelve grades in an eight-room building, and now finds it almost impossible. The attendance as the school this year is larger than it has ever been before and the rooms are crowded. It appears to be the consensus of opinion in Webster Groves that a high school building is needed and leading citizens hape that the efforts now on foot to obtain it will prove successful.

NEWCASTLE'S LORD BISHOP IS HERE.

Bishop Jacobs Is En Route to Episcopalian Convention at San Francisco.

Bishop Jacobe, the Reverend Lord Bishop of Newcastle, England, arrived in St. Louis yesterday morning and is being entertained at the home of Bishop Tuttle of Missouri. Bishop Jacobs comes to America to attend with a Republic reporter at the residence of Bishop D. S. Tuttle yesterday afternoon. "Before I say anything about myself or with a Republic reporter at the residence of Bishop D. S. Tuttle yesterday afternoon.

"Before I say anything about myself or church matters," said Bishop Jacobs, "I wish to say that the English church and nation feel great sorrow for the calamity that has befallen the United States in the death of President McKinley. I hardly believe that the sorrow in the United States can be greater than it is in my country. President McKinley was very dear to our people, and a great many things have happened to bring both him and the people of the United States, closer to us than they were ten—yes, five—years ago."

Bishop Jacobs emphastice the fact that he had come to America to attend the San Francisco convention as representative of the English Church and in no official capacity as a delegate. He refused to discuss the two matters regarded as the most important which are to come before the convention—changing the canon referring to divorce and marriage and the change of the men of the American church.

Asked if he was prepared to express the sentiment of the English Episcopalians as he found it toward the proposed change of the divorce canon. Bishop Jacobs said: "No, I am not. I think it would be highly improper for me, as a visitor, to express an opinion of the proposed acts of my hosts, as I feel that I am the guest of the entire Episcopalian Church of this country. So far as the English church people are convention and is discused there, it will no coult, arouse a great deal of interest in England, and then will the English church people learn to know what it means.

"No them for the proposed change of the name of the Episcopal Church in America. That is purely an American ideea and the business alone of Americans. When the convention is in session I may say something on the subject, but now I believe it would be entirely out of place for me to express myself."

Bishop Jacobs has been Lord Bishop of lewcastle for six years. Previous to his ppointment to the position he was Vicar Portses, a parish, as the name implies, in the coast, and populated chiefly by nariners and naval representatives.

Eighteen years ago Bishop Jacobs visited imerica. He has been a lifelong friend of bishop Tuttle, and was his guest on his former visit to this country.

IS THERE A THIRD WOMAN?

Omaha Police Begin to Flounder in Acid-Throwing Case.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 21.—The police are beginning to find themselves at sea as to what woman it was that threw acid in the face of Miss Maud Hanson. Miss Hanson says the woman called herself "Mrs. Maray"; Mrs. Mollie Mabray, wife of John Mabray, the man in the case, denies that she did it. The police are beginning to think there is a third woman who was interested in Mabray, and that perhaps she threw the acid.

terested in Mabray, and that perhaps she threw the acid.

The case was a peculiar one. As Miss Hanson relates the story, a woman called at her room twice, and the first time she came she introduced herself as Mrs. Mabray. "When I came into the room she said: I am Mrs. Mabray, and I want to know what you are doing with Mr. Mabray's photograph on your mantel. Then she went away and came back again in about an hour with the acid, which she dashed in my face."

Mrs. Mabray was arrested at Crawford, and it was there that she denied throwing the acid, although she admiss having been in Omaha on that day.

BROUGHT A JURY TO TIME.

News of the Buffalo Tragedy Af fected a Damage Suit.

Marshall, Ill., Sept. 21.—A noyel point of law has been raised in the Circuit Court of this county. A hig damage suit had been tried and the jury had been some time considering its verdict, and many different opinions were held by the jurors. The jury, in charge of a balliff, was returning to the jury-room from a short waft, when a court attache who had been excited by the news of the assassination of Fresident McKinley told the jury of the shooting of the President.

The jury hastened to the room, and in a few minutes returned a verdict. The complainant asked for a new trial on the ground that the jurors were influenced unduly by the news conveyed to them. The Judge has not ruled on the point.

MINER MOBBED BY MINERS.

Had Declared That All Presidents Should Be Killed.

Leadville, Colo., Sept. 21.—An Italian miner in the Eik mire remarked that all Kings and Presidents should be killed, and that it was the right thing to kill McKin-ley. Three hundred miners gathered at the shafthouse, waited until the fellow appeared, placed a rope around his neck and started for a railroad treetle. On the advice of some of the crowd, the man's life was spared, but he was badly choked and driven out of the camp by the miners with drawn revolvers.

ONE SKIPPER ONLY ON THE SHAMROCK.

Captain Edward Sycamore Will Have Absolute Control of Yacht.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL New York, Sept. Zi.—"Bob" Wringe will not be on the second Shamrock during the races for the international cup. It is stated on the highest authority that Sir Thomas as a reserve skipper and to let Captain Ed-ward Sycamore have absolute control of the Irish challenger during the match for the America's Cup. It was the original in-tention to have Captain Wringe sail on the racer to assume general supervision of the sails; but profiting by the unsavory Ho-garth-Wringe fistiang episode of two years ago. Bir Thomas decided never again to have two masters on his craft. Nobody dreamed, however, that Captain Wringe would be prohibited from being on the boat during the contest and the rumor, which was afterward traced to a reliable source, caused a great deal of comment about the as a reserve skipper and to let Captain Ed aused a great deal of comment about the Erin Basin to-day.

Another important piece of information that came from semioficial sources to-day is that Sir Thomas has assured several of his best American friends that in the event of the Columbia losing her mast or becoming otherwise disabled during a race, the Shamrook would turn back, lend any aid that was possible to the crippied boat and refuse to sail over the course alone. Sir Thomas insisted upon the "every boat to abide by her own accident" clause two years ago in the conditions for the race and when the first Shamrock lost her topmast and the Columbia "walked" over the course alone, the committee rejuctantly decided in favor of the American boat. It was stated to-day that Sir Thomas has said:

Will Win Fairly or Not at All. Will Win Fairly or Not at All.

"I want to win squarely and fairly, or not at all. Ko stukes, no walkovers for me."

Still another interesting story that came out to-night is that Sir Thomas, with the sid of Master Salimaker Thomas W. Ratsey and Designer George L. Watson, has decided that the Shamrock, with her reduced sail plan and discharge of inside ballast, will have to allow the Columbia only one minute and twenty-five seconds over a thirty-mile course, the regular distance for the cup races. At one time it was thought that the challenger would have to give fully one minute more than this. The old Shamrock, because of her small body, but big sail plan, received 6.03 seconds from Columbia. This means a reversal of figures of 1 minute and 31.65 seconds in favor of the American boat this year. Considering that the Columbia beat the first Shamrock about 10½ minutes; that she is at least 5 minutes faster now than in 1895; that, with her allowance, the total figures up to 17 minutes and .01 second, and that he new Shamrock is supposed at the best to be only 9 minutes faster than her old mate, the experts about Bouth Brooklyn cannot see how the Columbia can lose.

PRESIDENT'S MEMORY.

Irate Woman Throws Things at Man Who Wasn't Sorry.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 21.-Just what Mr. David Kane really said is a matter of dispute, but Mrs. Mary Keenan, who heard him, understood that he was insulting the memory of the dead President. From that time forward the case is as clear as daylight. Milk cans, books, lamps and crockery were the missles which, at the hands of the angered Mrs. Keenan, were most effective weapons. A skinned nose, several cuts around the mouth and a bump on the head the size of an egg were the injuries received by Mr. Kane before he succeeded in putting the weman out of the room and lecking his deer.

Not content with the injuries indicted, David Kane really said is a matter of dis-& Wesson six-shooter, which was loaded, she once more salled forth.

Hatless, and with the big gun in her right hand, she walked up and down Jackson street searching in vain for Kane until found by policeman Salisbury, by whom she was refleved of her dangerous weapon. The same policeman then sought Mr. Kane, and found him.

"Is that woman gone?" he asked tremulously. "She is," said the policeman. Mr. Kane heaved a sigh of relief.

Mrs. Keenan says Mr. Kane said: "It served McKinley right that he was shot," "I didn't." says Mr. Kane. "The little thing I did say was, "McKinley is better dead than a poor man with half a dozen kids." Then she ups and throws things."

IMMIGRANTS LANDED BY FRAUD. New Bedford Shipping Agent Is

Held Under Indictment. Boston, Mass., Sept. 21.-Indicted on the charge of allowing 110 Portuguese lads from Fayal, C. V. I., to enter this country in vio-lation of the immigration laws. Antonio H. Rodgers, a New Bedford shipping agent, was taken from his office by United States officers and brought to this city for a hear-ing. He was released on $3,000 bail and his trial will be arranged later.

For months the officials have been working upon this case, which is considered one of great importance. Having apprehended the defendant some time ago. United States Deputy Waters has a date set for the hearing. The Government officials allege that important witnesses were spirited away, causing the prosecution to fall through, and in consequence Rodgers was acquitted.

Nothing daunted, the immigration officials continued their investigations. Witnesses were again procured with much difficulty, and through their evidence an indictment was found against Rodgers, resulting in his arrest. When taken into custody he manifosted great surprise. The Portuguese lads have been leaving Cape Verde Islands to escape military duty. The schooner for which Rodgers is agent is the Hattle and Lottle, and it is alleged that in May last 10 young men were brought here on that vessel and permitted to land. According to the Government officials, the Schooner reached New Bedford at night and, under cover of darkness, the boys were landed in boats.

GRAND LARCENY CHARGED—A war-rant charging grand farceny was issued-yesterday against Louis Fingerlin, who was arrested with "Jack" Williams and William Condon on a charge of breaking into Gra-ham Smith's room at No. 2235 St. Charles street and causing a disturbance. Smith says a lot of clothing was stolen, and Fin-gerlin was seen carrying it away. He re-fused to swear out a warrant against Con-don and Williams.

"This is an ideal tood and evidently furnishes the elements necessary for a baby as vell as for adults. We have used Grape-Nuts in large quantities and greatly to our advantage."—F. W. Leavitt, Minneapolts, Minn.

advantage. F. W. Leavitt, himneapolts, Minn.

One advantage about Grape-Nuts food is that it is predigested in the process of manufacture—that is, the starch contained in the wheat and barley is transformed into grape sugar in exactly the same mentioned as this process is carried out in the human body—that is, by the use of moisture and long exposure to moderate watenth, which grows the diastase in the grains and makes the remarkable change from starch to grape sugar. Therefore, the most delicate stomach can handle Grape-Nuts, and the food is quickly absorbed into the blood and tissue, certain parts of it going directly to building and nourishing the brain and nerve centers.

Schwendt was a laborer, if years old, He was employed at the Collier White Lead Works. About a year ago he began to develop a case of painter's colle, combined with chronic rheumatism. A few weeks ago he was confined to his bed. Schwendt decided that he preferred death to being an invalid.

When breakfast was over yesterday morning he, requested his wife to send for a drink for him as she went to market.

"It's the last favor I will ask of you," he said.

"I also wish you would send Ulrich here. by swallowing carbolle acid, after a strug-"I also wish you would send Ulrich here. I want to give him some advice before I go."

"What do you mean?" she asked.
"Til show you," he said, and he raised a small phial of carbolic acid to his lips. She ran to him and struck his arm, but he had swallowed the fatal draft. Doctor Loew advised Schwendt's removal to the City Dispensary and called an ambulance. Schwendt died at the dispensary. His body was removed to the morgue.

TO MOVE AGAINST ANARCHY. Chicage Club to Ask Congress to Take Positive Action. Chicago, Sept. 21.—The Marquette Chib, which adopted resolutions for the extirpation of anarchism at its memorial services in the Auditorium Thursday night, does not nited to let the matter drop with the passing of the resolutions. To-night the memoers of the club held a meeting to appoint a committee to formulate ways and means for the carrying out of the campaign gainst anarchy. The plan of the Marquette Lub is to work as hard as possible to bring the matter before Congress when it assembles.

W. L. Busch, president of the club, says the move is not to be a political one, as it is desired that every liberty-loving citizen of the Republic shall help to urge Congress and the State legislatures to pass, at the earliest possible moment, laws against anarchy.

carliest possible moment, laws against anarchy.

Laws against anarchism as stringent as the Constitution will permit, and along the lines contemplated by the Marquette Club, were talked of by a party of national lawmakers returning yesterday from President McKinley's funeral.

Senators Allison and Dolliver of Iowa and Clark of Montana, Speaker Henderson of the House of Representatives, Governor
Otero of New Mexico, A. B. Cummina Republican candidate for Governor of Iowa;
Representative I. H. Wing of Wirconsin, former Congressman James Hamilton Lewis of Washington and a number of other Western Congressmen made up a party that traveled on the same train from Canton.

that traveled on the same train from Canton.

In a discussion of anarchism and the dangers of its teachings it devioped that all were practically of one mind on the main question—the necessity of repressive measures against proponents of the cult.

The plans sugessted ranged from deportation of anarchists to some lonely Pacific island to prevention of meetings of all persons who speak against a republican form of government. The entire party was a unit in favoring a statute making an attack on the chief executive treason, punishable by death.

They attend the Blow School. Least Wednesday they decided that they would visit their grandparents in McClosky. III. So they started out to walk without notifying their relatives. They thought they could walk there easily, not taking into consideration that a big river separated them from the State of Illinois and that it would take money to pay bridge toll. They walked until night came on, when they slept in an old shed somewhere, they do not know where.

Meantime Albert Voirol, father of Clara, had notified the police and requested them to locate the youths. Thursday they walked and walked. That night they stopped at a bakery. Friday they started forth anew confidently expecting that their path would lead to McClosky. They begged food from strangers along the way.

When dusk came Friday night they were near Union Station. They saw the clock in the big tower, but they did not know what building it was, and they prepared to spend the night in a doorway near by. A stranger who found them ascertained that they were bound for Illinois, and took them to Union Station, where they fell into the hands of Matron Brown. She kept them for the night and yesterday morning turned them over to Bergeant Rea, who ascertained that they ran away from their home, in Carondelet.

Voirol was notified, and he hastened to Union Station to claim the trunts. They Voirol was notified, and be hastened to Union Station to claim the truants. They were quite glad to see him, and returned home rejoicing. Visitors at St. Louis Hotels.
